

Ace the Case

Local. National. Global.

KPMG is going to be on your campus to talk about our upcoming Ace the Case Workshop and Competition happening on January 29th and 30th in our KPMG Vancouver office at 777 Dunsmuir Street, Vancouver, BC. Hear from our Ambassadors and past participants about how the Ace the Case experience provided them with a great opportunity to learn new skills and build relationships with our amazing KPMG people.

Ace the Case gives students the opportunity to learn how to plan, write, and debrief a case—valuable skills not only for your studies and in other case competitions, but for success in your upcoming professional career! The competition element of Ace the Case is used to determine the team that will represent Canada at the KPMG International Case Competition this April in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

All of this makes Ace the Case truly a once in a lifetime opportunity that you don't want to miss!

For more information about Ace the Case, please feel free to attend our information session happening on your campus. Details are listed below.
